

Friday, March 21 and Saturday, March 22 at the Mayo Civic Center

The GLACIER

Stops Here

Adventures in Our Driftless Region

For more information, visit www.RochesterCVB.org/glacier

Friday, March 21

Exhibits and Seminars

Noon to 6:00pm, four seminars
Taylor Arena, Mayo Civic Center
$5 at the door, children 12 and under admitted at no charge

Reception and Banquet

Reception at 6:00pm
Banquet follows at 7:00pm
C&D Riverview Suites, Mayo Civic Center
$20 per person

Catered by the Canadian Honker
Purchase tickets at www.RochesterCVB.org/glacier
Reservations due by March 12

Ron Schara and Raven "Driftless Boyhood Memories" and Duke Welter "Driftless Ramblings" followed by a Live Auction for a Ron Schara edition River Ridge Custom Canoe

Saturday, March 22

Breakfast Buffet

8:30am to 9:30am
C&D Riverview Suites, Mayo Civic Center
$12 per person
Guest speaker Ron Schara, Q&A time,
Report on Lessard Commission

Catered by the Canadian Honker
Sponsored by Zumbro Watershed Partnership
Purchase tickets at www.zumbrowatershed.org
Reservations due by March 12

Exhibits and Seminars

9:30am to 7:00pm, eight seminars
$5 at the door, children 12 and under
admitted at no charge

Four seminars on Friday and eight on Saturday about caves, rocks, fossils, rivers, native plants, and fishing, plus hands-on casting demonstrations and fly tying by our local Hiawatha Trout Unlimited chapter. Also, high school students teach kids about the outdoors, movies about the area, and pieces by local artists.

Educating People and Making Them Aware of Our Driftless Region

